A Note from Dean Tim

"Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone." (1 Corinthians 12:4-6)

This coming Saturday marks the beginning of the Annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity by the World Council of Churches. This is the main ecumenical framework for the Church of God, divided as it is into many branches. Our Epistle reading from First Corinthians this Sunday is a timely reminder that although there are many scattered Christians throughout the world, at base God provides all the gifts from which we minister in our various branches of the Church. When all is said and done and the incense or smoke-machines are silent, we all seek to serve God and give glory through the gifts we have been given.

As a show of our commitment to working with one another locally, the clergy leaders of the four downtown churches are participating in a pulpit exchange for our main services this weekend. Reno's much beloved Father Chuck Durante, Rector of Thomas Aquinas Cathedral, will join with us here to break open the Word in his sermon. I will be preaching at First United Methodist, whose minister, The Rev Dr. George Edd-Bennett, will preach at Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd. Pastor Scott Trevithick from Good Shepherd will round out the exchange by preaching at Thomas Aquinas Cathedral.

It's been a good beginning this year for my relationship with these fellow clergy, with whom I share much in common in pastoral focus. In addition to this exchange, we are working on a few other events together. We are coordinating a shared Blessing of the Palms Liturgy in Wingfield Park on Palm Sunday. And most of you know of our partnership with the Reno Initiative for Shelter and Equality (RISE), where we are providing an overnight warming center for women and families experiencing homelessness. This is occurring on a four-week rotation.

Our next Hosting week for the RISE Warming Center begins on January 28. I'm asking for volunteers to assist with welcoming our guests in the evenings, from 8:30p to 9:30p, and with assisting them in departing for their days from 5:30a to 6:30a. Please contact me at the office if you feel called to help. RISE is coordinating volunteers to assist overnight as well, and if that is a ministry that is calling to you, please volunteer with RISE: <https://renoinitiative.org>.

It is good that we have these relationships and ministries with our fellow Christians downtown. Pray for the unity of the Church in this coming week of Christian unity:

God our Father, accept our praise and thanksgiving for what already unites Christians in the confession of and witness to Jesus the Lord. Hasten the hour when all churches will recognize each other in the one communion you willed and for which your Son prayed to you in the power of the Holy Spirit. Hear us, you who live and reign now and forever. AMEN

Pax,

Tim+

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

On Sunday January 19 we welcome Father Chuck Durante of St. Thomas Aquinas Cathedral to Trinity as part of this year's Pulpit Rotation, celebrating the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Our own Dean Tim will be visiting the First United Methodist Church, right across the river.

The year 2025 marks the 1,700th anniversary of the first Christian Ecumenical Council, held in Nicaea, near Constantinople in 325 CE. This commemoration provides a unique opportunity to reflect on and celebrate the common faith of Christians, as expressed in the Nicene Creed, which traces its origins to the Council of Nicaea. The Council of Nicaea led to the adoption of the Nicene Creed as an expression of the common faith of Christians.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2025 offers an invitation to draw on this shared heritage and to enter more deeply into the faith that unites all Christians.

Do you love listening to podcasts? If so, you may want to check out the following offerings that are produced and recorded by The Godly Play Foundation and StoryMakers. Click on the icon to go listen.

The StoryMakers Podcast is a place where curiosity and play meet to spark faith through the imagination. In each episode host Melina Luna Smith introduces you to a new friend who will share hope for the kids and teens in your life, with a dose of encouragement for the grown-ups, too.

Brought to you by Mockingbird Ministries (www.mbird.com), in partnership with StoryMakers NYC (www.storymakersnyc.com). Audio production by TJ Hester.

Created for all Godly Play practitioners, storytellers, trainers and fans! This podcast is full of trainers, storytellers, even the participants giving tips for a fantastic program and sharing stories of inspiration for all.

Caring for young children's spirituality is a delicate balance and can often be made more difficult when we grown-ups don't care for ourselves. Struggling through religious or church-related trauma or even feelings of inadequacy when it comes to answering our children's big questions. At Mess Makes Meaning we are here to equip parents and caregivers to remind them and their children that they are deeply loved by interviewing some guests who are professionals in this vital work. With relatable humor from hosts and guests alike, this podcast is for you and created by Godly Play®.

Trinity Cathedral Annual Meeting Jan. 26

This year's annual meeting will be on January 26 following a combined 10 a.m. Sunday service, which will replace the 9 and 11 regular services that morning.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend the meeting. Among other things the parish will elect new vestry members and delegates to the annual diocesan convention and hear how things are going financially and otherwise.

The Saturday 5 p.m. and Sunday 7:30 a.m. services will continue as usual that weekend.

Time to sign up for flowers!

The Flower Guild greatly appreciates your continuing support of this ministry.

There is a new flower calendar in the tower entrance to the cathedral. Please select important dates that you would wish to donate the flowers.

The cost is $50 for one of the large vases, $100 for both.

A Lot of Good Men January Lunch

Saturday, January 25th
11:30 Lunch
Palais de Jade
960 W. Moana Lane

Contact Clyde at cnp_reno@yahoo.com for more details.

Attention All Prayer Team Members

There will be a gathering of the prayer team on February 2nd. We will meet in the Cathedral at 10 am (between the 9 am and 11 am services). This is an important meeting. All current members (and those interested in becoming a member) are expected to attend. The membership norms will be addressed and it will be a time where any questions or concerns can be discussed. Those unable to attend please contact Betsy Bethke, Prayer Team Coordinator (betsybethke@yahoo.com).

Divinely Fine Women

Please join the Divinely Fine Women of our church in February. We will meet for lunch on Saturday, February 8 at Skipolini's Restaurant in the Summitt Mall, 13971 S. Virginia Street, Reno, 89511 at 12 Noon. Please mark your 2025 calendar as we will continue meeting on the second Saturday of each month. Meetings will be held at member's homes or at a local restaurant with the location information going out the month prior. The group is for women of the parish with its goal being to establish new and renew old friendships within our church. Please come back if you attended in the past and come if you have not attended or are new to the church. Call Susan Lombardi at 775 329-2044 or text to 775 530-4602 or email to hlwrno@gmail.com to RSVP. Please plan to attend and spread the word.

A Word from your Endowment Committee

At the start of this New Year, many of us will take the opportunity to re-evaluate our wills and trusts to ensure that those plans still reflect our wishes, desires, and current situations.

For example, events like weddings and births may prompt us to make changes in our plans; so may the acquisition or sale of property or other assets. Relocating to Nevada from another state may trigger changes. Certainly, a death or divorce may cause us to rethink and restructure our plans.

Making a bequest in your will and living trust for Trinity's Endowment Fund helps to provide a strong earthly financial future for our congregation. It also provides a powerful testimony to our family members about our priorities, stewardship, and trust in our Lord.

The following language may be helpful to your attorney should you decide to give to Trinity in this way: "I give, devise and bequeath the sum of $(specific amount) or (X asset) to Trinity Episcopal Church, (Federal tax ID #88-0073425), a Nevada non-profit organization located at 201 Island Avenue, Reno Nevada 89501. This bequest is to be used for the benefit of the Trinity Endowment Fund."

You may also leave a percentage of your estate, or a percentage of your estate after the payment of debts. You may designate that your bequest be used to fund something specific like our music program, missions, youth program, or capital campaign.

There are some other options available to you as well, depending on your situation. These options may help you leave a bequest to Trinity and reduce your estate taxes at the same time. Since all of our situations are different, you should consult with an estate planning attorney for the proper legal advice.

So as the New Year begins, remember to take some time to make sure your will and trust reflect your current situation and desires. If you have not created a will and living trust, be sure to contact an attorney who specializes in this area of the law. There is no better time than right now to make sure your earthly affairs are ordered the way you want them.

Name Tag Orders

The office is preparing to place an order for name tags. Please reach out to info@trinityreno.org or drop by the office Monday-Friday, 10-12 and 1-3 if you would like a new one, or if you are a new member and don't have one yet. First name tags are free, replacements and updates are $10.

Prayer Concerns

Trinity Family and Friends

Sylvelyn, Pat, Dorothy, Ron, Sharon, Susan, Jim, Jody, Kelly, Emily, Courtney, Elliott, Janis; and in our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we join the bishop in praying for Diocesan Vestries and Parish Annual Meetings; and those suffering from the wildfires in Los Angeles, the Rt. Rev. John Taylor, Bishop

Departed

Beverly Allen, Patricia McQuattie

Bereaved

Lynn Allen

God of mercy and healing, you who hear the cries of those in need, receive these petitions of your people that all who are troubled may know peace, comfort, and courage. Amen.

The prayer list is updated regularly. We pray for the brothers and sisters from our church community who are currently experiencing a health crisis. Email Betsy Bethke at betsybethke@yahoo.com to let us know of your prayer request.

Healing Eucharist

On the first Wednesday of each month, Trinity has a Healing Eucharist at noon. Father Julius Rogina is the officiant. The service takes place in the Bishop Lewis Chapel. During the service, the names of those on the prayer list are read aloud and those wishing to be anointed with oil may come forward or may be anointed on behalf of someone else. All are welcome to attend.

Four Steps for Submitting Items to the Carillon

Wondering how to get Trinity news and happenings into the Carillon? Here's what to do:

1. Write the information the way you'd like it to appear in the Carillon. Although we will edit submissions as needed, it's very helpful to get items that are fully written out.

2. If you'd like a graphic or photo to go with your submission, please send the graphic or photo as an attachment to the email. This makes it much easier to include than if you embed the image in the email itself.

3. Email your submission to the Trinity office: info@trinityreno.org.

4. Mind the weekly deadline: 2 p.m. Wednesday for the Friday Carillon.

The Vestry

2025 - Barbara Marquand (Senior Warden), David Bennum, Nancy Petersen and Marné McKimmey

2026 - Ann Morgan (Clerk), Bruce Bethke, Mikkel Bassett, Kathryn Landreth and Rebecca Dixon

2027 - Margaret Brown (Junior Warden), Aaron Koning, and Eric Nummela

Youth Representative: Luke Wolfe

Heavenly Father, give our wardens and vestry a daily renewal of your presence, uphold them with your peace, a peace that passes all understanding, enlighten them with your word, and strengthen them with your grace. Amen.

The Lessons Appointed for Use on the Second Sunday after the Epiphany

The Collect

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lesson: Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,

until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.

The nations shall see your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;

and you shall be called by a new name
that the mouth of the Lord will give.

You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;

but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;

for the Lord delights in you,
and your land shall be married.

For as a young man marries a young woman,
so shall your builder marry you,

and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

The Response: Psalm 36:5-10

5 Your love, O Lord, reaches to the heavens, *
and your faithfulness to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
your justice like the great deep; *
you save both man and beast, O Lord.

7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of your delights.

9 For with you is the well of life, *
and in your light we see light.

10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
and your favor to those who are true of heart.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

The Gospel: John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Optional parts of the readings are set off in square brackets. The Bible texts of the Old Testament, Epistle and Gospel lessons are from the New Revised Standard Version Bible, copyright 1989 by the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA, and used by permission.

The Collects, Psalms and Canticles are from the Book of Common Prayer, 1979.
