A Note from Dean Tim

"Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever." (Psalm 23:6)

This verse is my favorite part about Psalm 23. The Hebrew word "radaf" in the verse might be more accurately translated as "pursue me" instead of "follow me." There's more of a concept of spirited chase (as in hunting) than is usually seen in English translations. And I love the idea of God chasing after us.

It reminds me of one of my early childhood memories, in the Sawtooth Mountains of Idaho. I was perhaps four years old. I don't remember much about it, except that we were looking for pinecones that my grandmother intended to use for decorations. In any event, I wandered off near Johnson Creek, swollen with the spring run-off. I vaguely remember my mother coming over a rise, running toward me. Pursuing me. The story goes that I had disappeared, and my family was afraid I had fallen into the creek. I just remember my mother running and sweeping me into her arms, crying but relieved.

It was not my intention to wander off that day. I had just sort of meandered away in search of the perfect pinecone. Sheep do this as well. They wander about grazing without being overly concerned with where they are. They can literally nibble their way lost. People do this too. A shepherd must maintain awareness and redirect them back to the flock, pursuing them when they stray, chasing them down to save them from wandering into danger. For a four-year-old this could be a rushing creek. For a sheep it can be any number of things from wolves to rushing water as well. For human beings the wolves are more often metaphorical, but they are out there.

Thank God for the good shepherds in our lives that chase after us out of their love and care for us; be they Jesus, our moms, or anyone else. The happy juxtaposition of Good Shepherd's Sunday and Mother's Day is a good opportunity for us to express our appreciation for all those who, in our transitory existence, have redirected us toward safer pastures. To all the mothers, and others who have also mothered us in some way, thank you! Keep up the pursuit. It is so worth it and so appreciated. Happy Mother's Day!

A few housekeeping notes... I want to issue a quick reminder that the Arlington Bridge Project is now underway. It appears that First Street will be blocked in addition to Arlington. If you are coming from the Northwest, please approach the Cathedral from Sierra, using Second Street. If you are coming from the Southwest, I recommend California to Arlington to Court Street. Arlington is open coming from the south and I am told it will remain so. The construction barriers begin at Island Avenue.

Finally, I am joining with cathedral deans from the US and Canada this week. We are meeting together at our sister Trinity Cathedral in Omaha. We will be hearing from our new Presiding Bishop, The Most Reverend Sean Rowe, to learn more about his vision for the next nine years, and how cathedrals fit into it. I look forward to absorbing information from him and my fellow deans. Please pray for us in our collegiality and work. I hope to share what I learn with you in the coming weeks!

Musical Notes

Dr. Bryan Chuan

Welcome Choral Scholars!

Thanks to your generous support, Trinity is proud to invite talented UNR students and community members to reinforce our St. Cecilia Choir. Choral scholars have long been a tradition in Anglican choirs and Trinity, and some choral scholars have gone on to prominent musical careers (the great mezzo-soprano Dolora Zajic was once a Trinity choral scholar!). Their musical expertise will help our music ministry supplement the Episcopal liturgy with anthems and solos of the highest caliber.

Aidan Orozco, born and raised in Reno, currently studies at TMCC and is expected to start his BM in Vocal Performance at UNR this Fall. He has studied classical voice with Dr. Michael TK Lam at UNR for about a year. He has been singing since childhood and has enjoyed it ever since.

Canon Ruth's Corner

Second Friday for May 2025

Archive Wine + Beer (archivewinebeer.com), 148 West Street, will be our gathering place on Friday, May 9, 4:00-6:30. This is in the West Street Market. Archive has plenty of wines, beers, canned cocktails, and non-alcoholic choices. They do not have happy hour prices, nor a happy hour food menu, but there are three establishments available for eats—The Fix, The Pizza Collective, and Thali. While the Archive is on the small side, the internal courtyard is well able to accommodate us for extra seating. There are backs on the chairs, no stairs to negotiate and the music is pleasant and not too loud. You can park on and around West Street, or in the parking garage at 1st and Sierra. It's also possible that there will be parking at Trinity so that you can just walk over the River to Archive. Please join us, and friends are welcome too!

As always, call, text or email with questions. 775-721-2669 or ruthhanusa@gmail.com.

Greetings from Canon Diana

I've been thinking about what to write for our first Carillon encounter and thought I might share with you "Jesus Calling" by Sarah Young. I read her every morning and would love to share her thoughts for today:

"Don't be so hard on yourself. I can bring good even out of your mistakes. Your finite mind tends to look backward, longing to undo decisions you have come to regret. This is a waste of time and energy, leading only to frustration. Instead of floundering in the past, release your mistakes to Me. Look to Me in trust, anticipating that My infinite creativity can weave both good choices and bad into a lovely design.

Because you are human, you will continue to make mistakes. Thinking that you should live an error-free life is symptomatic of pride. Your failures can be a source of blessing, humbling you and giving you empathy for other people in their weaknesses. Best of all, failure highlights your dependence on Me. I am able to bring beauty out of the morass of your mistakes. Trust Me, and watch to see what I will do."

"And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." – Romans 8:28

"When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom." – Proverbs 11:2

"But as for me, I watch in hope for the Lord, I wait for God my Savior; my God will hear me." – Micah 7:7

My appointment times are Thursdays 1-4, please stop by and share your story!

Blessings, Canon Diana

Baby Bundles - Sharing Our Blessings with Others

Baby Bundles is composed of and supported by members of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral and St Catherine's Episcopal Church.

With items donated by both congregations, we assemble bundles of layette items for Renown Hospital. The bundles are then distributed by hospital staff to disadvantaged new parents who have little or nothing for their newborn.

We have found that newborn-size clothing can be too small. We are asking for size 0-3 months. The child will get more use out of it.

At this time we have an urgent need for baby wipes. In addition we would appreciate monetary donations so we can restock necessities.

Also needed are receiving blankets and washcloths for all 3, boys, girls, and unisex, girls' sleepers, and boys' onesies.

Please include your name on your donation so we can thank you.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact Susan Lombardi at 775-329-2044 or Ann Crase at 775-338-6376.

God Bless!

Construction on Arlington Avenue Bridges Project Begins May 5 via RTC Washoe

It's almost time! The Arlington Avenue Bridge Project will get underway on May 5th! The project is anticipated to take at least one year, into summer of 2026. Parishioners coming to cathedral from North Reno and the North Valleys should plan on using Sierra Street until the bridge replacement project is complete. Please plan ahead!

The RTC and the City of Reno are beginning a construction project to replace the Arlington Avenue Bridges spanning the Truckee River at Wingfield Park. These nearly century-old bridges will be transformed into modern, safer crossings that preserve Downtown Reno's character.

Closures & Detours Begin May 5

- Arlington Ave. will close between West 1st St. and Island Ave.
- Northbound traffic will be detoured to the Virginia St. bridge Southbound traffic and pedestrians will be detoured to the Sierra St. bridge
- May 5-11 only: The West 1st St./Arlington Ave. intersection will be closed to all traffic
- Starting May 12: West St. will be open to westbound traffic only between West St. and Stevenson St.
- Wingfield Park will remain closed from May 5 until summer 2026
- River recreation detours will also be in place
- View detour maps here: <https://arlingtonbridges.com/construction>
- View project details here: ARLINGTON AVENUE BRIDGES PROJECT – RTC Washoe

Project Improvements

- Enhanced safety for pedestrians, bicyclists, transit users, and drivers
- Major roadway improvements and utility upgrades
- Aesthetic enhancements reflecting community input
- North bridge: Reduced from two support piers to one, improving water flow
- South bridge: Clear-span design with no piers
- 32 new trees will be added to the project area, along with 295 new shrubs and plants. While the project design minimizes the number of trees that need to be removed, approximately 15 trees will be removed during construction.

Community Involvement

The project team is working to keep the community informed throughout construction. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns about the project, please reach out:

Courage Worldwide Summit on Child Trafficking

Courage Worldwide is hosting a Summit on Child Trafficking on May 9 at UNR. The event will feature a number of organizations and individuals from across Nevada that have expertise on what is happening with child trafficking in Nevada. The event is free to the public and we hope you can share this with your church family. We also invite your prayers – these are the most forgotten of all God's children, and we hope the community will embrace finding solutions that will impact the lives of this vulnerable population. The faith-based community has been the foundation for the work Courage Worldwide has done for the past 20 years, largely because this is a very dark space for most people. However, as Christians we are compelled to go into the places others won't, and our children are grateful for that.

Courage House Northern Nevada is coming together – we have acquired a property in the Red Rock area that will allow us to take in six children and begin construction on additional cottages, each housing six girls under age 18. We ask your prayers for this as well.

Four Steps for Submitting Items to the Carillon

Wondering how to get Trinity news and happenings into the Carillon? Here's what to do:

1. Write the information the way you'd like it to appear in the Carillon. Although we will edit submissions as needed, it's very helpful to get items that are fully written out.
 2. If you'd like a graphic or photo to go with your submission, please send the graphic or photo as an attachment to the email. This makes it much easier to include than if you embed the image in the email itself.
 3. Email your submission to the Trinity office: info@trinityreno.org.
 4. Mind the weekly deadline: 2 p.m. Wednesday for the Friday Carillon.

The Collect

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Old Testament: Acts 9:36-43

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

The Psalm: 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; *
I shall not be in want.

2 He makes me lie down in green pastures *
and leads me beside still waters.

3 He revives my soul *
and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.

4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil; *
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

5 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil,
and my cup is running over.

6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, *
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Epistle: Revelation 7:9-17

I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,
"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The Gospel: John 10:22-30

At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly." Jesus answered, "I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

Optional parts of the readings are set off in square brackets. The Bible texts of the Old Testament, Epistle and Gospel lessons are from the New Revised Standard Version Bible, copyright 1989 by the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA, and used by permission.

The Collects, Psalms and Canticles are from the Book of Common Prayer, 1979.
