The Dean's Dispatch

“Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you” (2 Corinthians 13:11)

It's going to be a big weekend for our community at Trinity Cathedral! This Sunday is Trinity Sunday, our parish feast, and it's going to be great! On Saturday evening, we will formally install Canon Diana as Canon Pastor of our community. As Canon Pastor, Diana is your go-to when the changes and chances of this life create need to speak with your spiritual leadership. I am often booked up with myriad meetings, but Canon Diana is almost always available to help you when needed. Canon Diana is also responsible for community life, such as the implementation of our Common Table Potlucks in partnership with Marlyse and Mikkel Bassett. She has already been doing the work of loving us for a year now and I am grateful that Bishop Elizabeth will be here on Saturday Evening to formally install Canon Diana in the role she is so very gifted to fill. Please join us to formally celebrate her ministry among us!

And remember that Sunday is Bishop Elizabeth's official homecoming. Yeah, I know that she “lives here” as we are her official home, but this is her official annual visit to us as our Bishop. It's a big deal! She will hold a forum at 9am in the cathedral to share diocesan news and entertain questions as time allows. She is looking forward to joining us for our parish picnic following the 10am Eucharist. As a reminder, the parking lot will be closed off for the picnic, please plan accordingly and park on the street or in the Court Lot on the corner of Court Street and Sierra. Please be kind and leave the closer street spots open for those with mobility issues.

Reading the lectionary for this week, the epistle from Paul resonated with me deeply. Paul appeals to the community in Corinth to put things in order, and we need to put our household in order too. We're about $35,000 shy of where your pledges projected that we should be at this point in the year. It has begun to impact our operations, and we must put cost cutting measures in place right away. A decline in pledge income often happens at churches in the summer as vacations begin and people leave town, but this year seems a bit further off than usual. It is impacting our ability to serve and meet our financial commitments. So, if you can, please catch up your pledge. If you want to get ahead, that'd be appreciated too! And thank you. I appreciate everything you give. I really do. Asking for money is not my favorite thing to do (most priests would agree). I only do so out of necessity. And friends of Trinity from afar, if you could send a little something out of love and your connection with this cathedral community, we'd appreciate it! You can give online, here.

Thank you for your love, presence, and generosity. I'll see you along The Way.

Pax,

Tim+

The Canon's Corner

A Reflection on Call, Ministry, and Trinity by Canon Diana

When I was first asked in 1992 to sit with the idea of becoming a priest, I was scared. I didn't know much about the Bible—I knew parts of it, but certainly not enough, I thought, to preach on it. I was 32 years old, a wife, and a mother of two teenagers. Why on earth would the Church want me to discern a call to the priesthood?

Over time, I came to understand that this call was never really about my readiness, but about God's knowing heart. As Sirach reminds us, "He searches out the abyss and the human heart; he understands their innermost secrets." God saw something in me that I could not yet see in myself.

As I look back over my life in ministry, I hear that same truth echoed in Ephesians: "I pray that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love." That has been my prayer—not only for myself, but for every community I have served.

And I am continually drawn to the beauty of Psalm 104, which reminds us that it is God who gives life and renews all things: "You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; and so you renew the face of the earth." Again and again, I have seen that renewal—in my own life and in the life of the Church.

Now, in 2026—almost 34 years after that first uncertain "yes"—I find myself deeply humbled and grateful to be called to serve as your Canon.

I couldn't have imagined this path then, but I can see so clearly now how God has been present in every step along the way.

Today, as I reflect on my ministry, I am filled with deep gratitude—especially for Trinity Episcopal Cathedral. This community has become a place of belonging, grace, and shared calling. It is a place where faith is lived, where love is embodied, and where we continue to grow together into God's holy presence.

I remain humbled by the call to serve among you. My prayer continues to be that I may be an instrument of God's love in this place—called to lead, to comfort, and to walk alongside you in faith.

Thank you, Trinity, for who you are and for the gift of serving with you in this new chapter. And thank you, Lord, for trusting me with this calling, and for continuing to renew us all through your Spirit.

Your Canon Pastor,

Diana+

A Word from your Endowment Committee

The Shortest Day

Every day has 24 hours. 1440 minutes. 86,400 seconds. Time that our Heavenly Father has ordained for us to live in His world and do His will. But a short day is coming for us—a day when we will not reach that 86,400th second and will be called into Eternal Glory.

We may have lived a long and useful life filled with great memories, from our learning years spent with parents, schools, and classmates, to the earning years spent starting that first job, building a career, and raising a family, to the retirement years when we have time to power down our schedules somewhat and enjoy visits with family and friends.

In many ways we can make a difference for family, friends, church, and countless others daily in our earthly life. Yet there is one more part of life—the chance to invest in the lives of others—through our estate plan. Consider the story of John D. Rockefeller, who founded Standard Oil in 1870 and became the richest man in the world. When he passed away, his accountant was asked, "How much of an estate did he leave?"

"All of it," was the reply. During his earthly life Rockefeller accumulated many assets, and he gave generously not only during that life but through his estate. So can you!

We have all been blessed through what the Lord has entrusted to us as His stewards. On the shortest day of our lives, everything we have accumulated will be given to someone or some purpose. By leaving a legacy through your will or trust, you can continue to bear fruit by helping others and our Lord's church on earth. Taking time now to create a plan will benefit your family, friends, and Trinity. Contact an estate planning professional today for advice on building a plan that is best for you. A member of our Endowment Committee can help point you in the right direction.

Our shortest day may be coming soon, or many years from now. Scripture assures it will come for all of us. Our chance to create a legacy that touches many others is here today.

The Common Table

When we set up the schedule for the Common Table, we had scheduled for June 3, 2026. This past weekend, along with a lot of other parishioners, we learned that the Cathedral has scheduled its summer kick off party after the 10:00 am service on May 31. After some discussion with Dean Tim and Canon Diana, we have made the decision that Common Table needs to go on summer vacation. There will be NO Common Table on June 3. We will resume the Common Table in September. Have a safe and happy summer!

Galilee WOMEN'S RETREAT

SEP. 4-7, 2026

Brave Enough to Hope: FAITH, COURAGE, AND JUSTICE IN THE STORM

What does it mean to be women of faith in a world that feels divided, anxious, and overwhelming?

At Galilee, we will gather to rest deeply, ask honest questions, and rediscover the courage that lives within us. Through guided sessions, small groups, embodied practices, play, prayer, and time at the lake, we will explore how hope is not naive optimism – but a brave, communal act.

Come ready to breathe, to laugh, to reflect, to swim, to sing, to wrestle, and to remember that you are not alone.

Led by the Rev. Hannah Wilder and Dr. Kathy Wilder.

Four Steps for Submitting Items to the Carillon

Wondering how to get Trinity news and happenings into the Carillon? Here's what to do:

1. Write the information the way you'd like it to appear in the Carillon. Although we will edit submissions as needed, it's very helpful to get items that are fully written out.
 2. If you'd like a graphic or photo to go with your submission, please send the graphic or photo as an attachment to the email. This makes it much easier to include than if you embed the image in the email itself.
 3. Email your submission to the Trinity office: info@trinityreno.org.
 4. Mind the weekly deadline: 3pm on Wednesday for the Friday Carillon.

The Lessons Appointed for Use on Trinity Sunday

The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Genesis 1:1-2:4a

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, "Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it." And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth." And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky." So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind." And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, "Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

So God created humankind in his image,
in the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth." God said, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

The Epistle: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

The Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."
