This Week's Breaking News

A Message of Gratitude

Earlier this year our congregation sent a delegation of our youth to the Episcopal Youth Event in Hawaii. This week we received the following note from one of our participants:

*Dear Members of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral,
Thank you so much for helping us raise enough money these last three years to be able to make it to Hawaii! We had so much fun, but my personal favorite was when we went to Hawaii's Plantation Village. Thank you for such an amazing trip that I will never forget!
From, Briley McNamara*

Thank you to Briley for the note, and thank you to all of our wonderful youth for the way you represent the Trinity family at home and abroad. We are so proud of you all!

Phantom of the Opera Fundraiser

The November 6 Phantom of the Opera fundraiser for the Parish Hall renovation really needs your help. In order to raise as much money as possible toward this necessary renovation, we need you, our Trinity Cathedral parishioners, to buy tickets for this event. If you cannot attend, please consider donating the cost of a ticket toward this goal.

Our Vestry, staff, and other dedicated parishioners have already put in many hours to make sure the Phantom of the Opera event is successful and festive; not to mention the generous contribution of Dorothy, the organist, friend to the Trinity family for many years.

Our renovated Parish Hall will include an elevator, a commercial kitchen to better serve our needs and those of the community, improved HVAC system, and ADA compliant features. All of us will benefit.

Buy your tickets, invite your friends and neighbors, and let's come together to support our building renovation.

Catechumenate Class Coming Soon

Our next Catechumenate class will begin on Wednesday, November 4 at 6 pm in the Parish Hall, and will run for six Wednesdays leading up to Christmas Eve.

This class is a period of formation, study, and spiritual growth for those new to the church or preparing to join. Anyone wishing to be baptized or confirmed at the Christmas Eve service on December 24 should attend!

Contact Dean Tim at dean@trinityreno.org for more information.

Music Notes

St. Cecilia Choir Begins New Season

Last Sunday, our dedicated choir members enriched service with Mozart's classic "Ave Verum", sung in Latin, then celebrated the start of the season and welcomed some new members at their annual choir social.

The choir is always happy to welcome prospective new members- email music@trinityreno.org for details.

Great Basin Chorale Returns to Trinity

Please join us Friday, September 25th at 7pm for Great Basin Chorale's program, "The Shape of Us". Tickets are "pay what you can" with a $10 suggested ticket donation.

The theme explores the people, places, and experiences that form and change us throughout our lives. The program is organized as a triptych with the following segments: Those Who Came Before Us, Those Who Walk With Us, and What We Carry With Us. Programming explores stories of people changed, love chosen, a desire for relationship, and the idea of carrying forward the love, wisdom, and strength we receive from those who shape us, even as we wrestle with our own imperfections and shortcomings.

The program features works of Jennifer Lucy Cook, Rosephanye Powell, Ysaye Barnwell, Z. Randall Stroope, Eric Whitacre, Jake Runestad, Sarah Quartel, and more.

Higher Elevation Music to present Vivaldi and Bach

Higher Elevation Music presents Antonio Vivaldi's most famous work: The Four Seasons, performed by Alex Eisenberg, violin, with the Higher Elevation Orchestra in 3 performances: October 10 -12.

Also on the program: Johann Sebastian Bach's joyful Wedding Cantata, sung by Tahoe's own favorite, Ania Helwing, Soprano.

Sunday, October 11, 3 pm, here at Trinity.

Tickets: $10, 40, and 80, children free with paid adult.

The Canon's Corner

Dear Friends in Christ,

Over the past eight days, I had the gift of stepping away from the rhythms of parish life to participate in Credo, a time of deep reflection, renewal, and spiritual grounding. Credo invites clergy to pause, listen, and rediscover the foundations that hold us steady in ministry and in life.

The most meaningful fruit of my time away was the creation of something simple, ancient, and profoundly personal: my Rule of Life. It's not a list of tasks or resolutions. It's a spiritual compass — a way of naming what matters most and choosing, with intention, how we'll live. It's a covenant we make with God, with ourselves, and with those we love.

I want to share mine with you, not as a prescription, but as a window into the commitments that shape my ministry and my daily walk with God.

My Rule of Life is held by five links that hold my covenant close: Family, Legacy of Joy, Self-Care, Generosity and Wonder, and Financial Well-Being.

My covenant is simple. I'll love my family deeply and tend to my own well-being with intention. I'll seek God's guidance daily and cherish the tender moments that grace my life. I'll look for joy — every day, in every place, in every season. I'll steward my finances wisely, live generously, and cultivate wonder. I'll leave a legacy of love, laughter, kindness, and grace. I choose to live with purpose, gratitude, and joy.

One of the practical tools that emerged during Credo was the 8–8–8 rule — a simple framework for living with balance and intention. It divides each day into three equal parts: eight hours for work or vocation, eight hours for rest and sleep, and eight hours for life — family, joy, creativity, prayer, movement, and wonder. It's not rigid; it's a lens. A way of noticing whether our days reflect our values or whether one part of life has begun to swallow the others.

For clergy — and for many of you — the “work” eight hours often expands until it consumes the “life” eight hours. The 8–8–8 rule is a gentle reminder that our vocation is holy, but so is our rest, our joy, our family, and our wonder. This rhythm supports my Rule of Life. It helps me live it not just in words, but in practice.

Credo reminded me that a Rule of Life isn't about perfection. It's about direction. It's about choosing — again and again — to live in alignment with the values God has planted in our hearts.

I share this with you because I believe every person, every household, every community can benefit from naming what holds them steady. If you feel a nudge to write your own Rule of Life, I'd be honored to walk with you as you explore it.

May we all continue to grow in purpose, gratitude, and joy.

With love and grace,
Canon Diana

Ministry News

A Word from your Endowment Committee

You have spent a lifetime building a financial future for your family. And you have discovered joy in giving to our congregation's work to welcome all, serve with love, and grow in Christ.

Maybe you've never considered your legacy- what you will leave behind when God calls you home to Himself. Please give it some thought today! A professionally-prepared will and trust allow you to direct who will receive your assets. Those estate planning documents allow you to give to our important work at Trinity through our endowment fund.

You and your loved ones can reap the benefits of this planning, and you will have the joy of knowing that you are helping to provide for our congregation's earthly future. When you include Trinity in your will, you can establish a bequest of a certain amount or a percentage of your estate. Simply provide your attorney with instructions.

If you have questions or would like more information, please contact the church office or a member of our endowment committee who will hold your inquiry in confidence. Thank you!

Coffee Hour Update

Our heartfelt thanks to the 20/30's Club for hosting the very first Coffee Hour. You created such a welcoming space — people lingered, laughed, and genuinely enjoyed being together. It was a wonderful way to share your ministry with our community, and we're grateful for the spirit you brought to the morning.

Next month, the Vestry will be hosting, and we're excited to keep this new tradition growing. To our congregation, take a moment during Coffee Hour to chat with our hosts about their ministry. You might discover something that sparks your interest or a group you'd love to learn more about.

Blessings,
Canon Diana+

With Love From Galilee

Thank you to all who made last weekend's retreat possible. Our own Phil Harriman writes, "The family retreat at Camp Galilee was amazing: physically and spiritually nourishing. Thank you Dean Tim, Mother Tanya, Stuart Campbell (and his sidekick Leo), my new Trinitarian friends, the Bakers, as well as the incredible folks who worship at St Catherine's."

Contact Clyde at cnp_reno@yahoo.com to RSVP.

All men of Trinity are automatically a part of this group. We want to foster friendship and support for one another.

Second Friday Social Hour

A very lively group of Trinity Folks enjoyed our Second Friday Social Hour earlier this month!

We are planning a repeat of our time together at Skyline Kitchen & Vine. Everyone is welcome to join in to make new friends and catch up with those whom we haven't seen in a while.

The Social Hour will take place on Friday, October 9, from 4-6. As always, Skyline offers half-off wine and cocktails as well as delicious small plates. See you there!

Adult Sunday School

Every Sunday during the Sunday School time, after the 9 am Service and before the 11 am Service
Meet at the coffee area and we'll head to a meeting room.

We will discuss how God is working in our lives with the following prompts:

- What message do you remember from last Sunday's sermon or last week's Carillon and how has it affected your life? (Please no spoilers from this Sunday's sermon from those attending the 9 am service)
- We will be learning Ignation Prayer, so as you prayed, directed by the lectionary readings from last week, what impact did it have on you?

Bringing an answer to one of these questions to share is a challenge, not an expectation. We expect one or two responses will drive plenty of discussion.

All adults are invited!

For more information contact Rodney Porter at porter.rodney@sbcglobal.net.

Divinely Fine Women

The Divinely Fine Women met on Saturday, September 19 at the home of Sandi Brooke for Koffee & Kuchen.

This group is for all women of the parish, its goal being to establish new and renew old friendships within our church. Keep an eye on this space for updates about the October gathering.

Departed

Donna, Julie, Ruth, Grace

Bereaved

Rebecca, Mike, Steve, Tim, Tom, family and friends of the departed

God of mercy and healing, you who hear the cries of those in need, receive these petitions of your people that all who are troubled may know peace, comfort, and courage. Amen.

The prayer list is updated regularly; names remain on the prayer list for six weeks.
We pray for those in our church community who are currently experiencing a health crisis.
Email prayerteam@trinityreno.org to let us know of your prayer request.

Healing Eucharist

Healing Eucharist is held every Wednesday at noon in the Bishop Lewis Chapel. During the service, the names of those on the prayer list are read aloud and those wishing to be anointed with oil may come forward or may be anointed on behalf of someone else. All are welcome to attend.

Four Steps for Submitting Items to the Carillon

Wondering how to get Trinity news and happenings into the Carillon? Here's what to do:

1. Write the information the way you'd like it to appear in the Carillon. Although we will edit submissions as needed, it's very helpful to get items that are fully written out.
2. If you'd like a graphic or photo to go with your submission, please send the graphic or photo as an attachment to the email. This makes it much easier to include than if you embed the image in the email itself.
3. Email your submission to the Trinity office: info@trinityreno.org.
4. Mind the weekly deadline: 3 pm on Wednesday for the Friday Carillon.

The Collect of the Day

Rite I:

O God, who declarest thy almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Mercifully grant unto us such a measure of thy grace, that we, running to obtain thy promises, may be made partakers of thy heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Rite II:

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Old Testament: Ezekiel 18:1-4, 25-32

The word of the Lord came to me: What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, "The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge"? As I live, says the Lord God, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel. Know that all lives are mine; the life of the parent as well as the life of the child is mine: it is only the person who sins that shall die.

Yet you say, "The way of the Lord is unfair." Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair? When the righteous turn away from their righteousness and commit iniquity, they shall die for it; for the iniquity that they have committed they shall die. Again, when the wicked turn away from the wickedness they have committed and do what is lawful and right, they shall save their life. Because they considered and turned away from all the transgressions that they had committed, they shall surely live; they shall not die. Yet the house of Israel says, "The way of the Lord is unfair." O house of Israel, are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?

Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, all of you according to your ways, says the Lord God. Repent and turn from all your transgressions; otherwise iniquity will be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, says the Lord God. Turn, then, and live.

The Response: Psalm 25:1-8

1 To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul; my God, I put my trust in you; *
let me not be humiliated, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

2 Let none who look to you be put to shame; *
let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.

3 Show me your ways, O Lord, *
and teach me your paths.

4 Lead me in your truth and teach me, *
for you are the God of my salvation; in you have I trusted all the day long.

5 Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love, *
for they are from everlasting.

6 Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; *
remember me according to your love and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord.

7 Gracious and upright is the Lord; *
therefore he teaches sinners in his way.

8 He guides the humble in doing right * and teaches his way to the lowly.

The Epistle: Philippians 2:1-13

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God

as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death-- even death on a cross.
Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name
that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

The Gospel: Matthew 21:23-32

When Jesus entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?" And they argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' But if we say, 'Of human origin,' we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet." So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

"What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' He answered, 'I will not'; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I go, sir'; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him."

Optional parts of the readings are set off in square brackets. The Bible texts of the Old Testament, Epistle, and Gospel lessons are from the New Revised Standard Version Bible, copyright 1989 by the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA, and used by permission.

The Collects, Psalms and Canticles are from the Book of Common Prayer, 1979.
