Procession Hymn Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee

Hymnal 376

The Collect of the Day

Rite I:

Grant us, O Lord, we pray thee, to trust in thee with all our heart; seeing that, as thou dost always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so thou dost not forsake those who make their boast of thy mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Rite II:

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament

Ezekiel 33:7-11

You, mortal, I have made a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me. If I say to the wicked, "O wicked ones, you shall surely die," and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at your hand. But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways, and they do not turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

Now you, mortal, say to the house of Israel, Thus you have said: "Our transgressions and our sins weigh upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?" Say to them, As I live, says the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from their ways and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel?

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 119:33-40

33 Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes, *
and I shall keep it to the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep your law; *
I shall keep it with all my heart.

35 Make me go in the path of your commandments, *
for that is my desire.

36 Incline my heart to your decrees *
and not to unjust gain.

37 Turn my eyes from watching what is worthless; *
give me life in your ways.

38 Fulfill your promise to your servant, *
which you make to those who fear you.

39 Turn away the reproach which I dread, *
because your judgments are good.

40 Behold, I long for your commandments; *
in your righteousness preserve my life.

The Epistle

Romans 13:8-14

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet"; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 18:15-20

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Rite I: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Rite II: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Rite I: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Rite II: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People

With expectant faith, let us place before God earnest petitions for ourselves and our world, saying: Lord, strengthen us.

For the church, especially for Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church; Elizabeth, our bishop; the vestry, staff, and clergy of this cathedral; and all ministers of the Gospel. Gathered in unity, may we ask for the Lord what is truly pleasing. Let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

For the sick and suffering in our world, especially Glen, Emily, Jody, Julie, Aracely, Orfilia, Kathy, Bryan, Dan, Christina, and those we name either silently or aloud (please add your own petitions), and for those who minister to them, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

For all of us here present, for those who meet with us online, for those not able to be here today; and for those intentions, prayers, needs, and sorrows we hold deep in our hearts, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

For communities of faith everywhere, for mutual respect and forbearance, for healthy conflict and holy conversations, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

For students, teachers, families, friends, and neighbors, for exploration and learning, for adventures and challenges, for the best use of God-given gifts, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

For all those affected by storms, by rain and wind and flooding. Blessed Lord, be with our sisters and brothers in the path of floods, other natural disasters, and war. Lead them on a path of healing and restoration, and guide all of us who walk along with them to acts of mercy and charity. May they perceive your love and mercy in the first responders and volunteers who come to their aid, and may they know your compassion and holy patience as they minister one to another. Let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

For the leaders of all nations. Facing myriad needs, may they work together to meet the needs of all humanity. Let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

For all those who serve in the armed forces of this and every nation, and for all who are deployed in harm's way this day, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

For those who have died, especially Mary, Gloria, Ron, Donna, Julie, Ruth, and those we name either silently or aloud (please add your own petitions). Let us call out to the Lord. Lord, strengthen us.

Presider:

Infinite God, we have no claim to your mercy; yet it is your mercy we truly need. Turn your ear toward our supplications, and grant us your healing touch. We ask this with faith in the name of Jesus, who, with you and the Holy Spirit, is one God forever and ever. Amen.

ARTWORK

New Kids in the Neighborhood

Norman Rockwell, 1894-1978

1967

Norman Rockwell Museum, Stockbridge, MA

In his illustration of suburban integration in Chicago's Park Forest community, Rockwell was secure in expressing his philosophy of tolerance. We can see the children will soon be playing with each other, but the face peering from behind a window curtain makes us wonder how the adults will fare.
